

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

FRENCH SOCIETY AND IDENTITY

June 27th – July 8th 2016

Discover France and true French “Art de vivre” in Lyon

Why Lyon?

Because Lyon is a city full of enchantment, full of life, full of history. Classed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO since 1998, the former capital of the Gauls is also known as the “Capital of French gastronomy”.

To experience France and true French art de vivre, you have to come to the city of Lyon!

Why our university?

Because:

- Choosing Jean Moulin Lyon 3 University means access to high quality education in the heart of the city of Lyon.
- Jean Moulin Lyon 3 University is open to students throughout Europe and the world, and has resolutely intercultural perspectives.
- Our Summer School will give you the opportunity to discover French culture and society through interesting courses in English focusing on business and law-related topics, the humanities and political science. The academic experience goes hand in hand with tasty and entertaining cultural activities.

Our programme is open to any participant who wants to discover France, Lyon and French culture and society.

Course overview

French society and identity Summer School 2016 proposes different courses on cultural and academic subjects, in the areas of business, the humanities, law and political sciences. The main language of instruction is English.

Courses, which run for around 5 hours per day, will give participants the opportunity to engage on both theoretical and practical levels. By way of added value, the programme contains around 10 hours of French language classes, and seeks to attract participants with same basic knowledge of French. However, absolute beginners can be integrated. The “survival French” classes are designed to facilitate integration during the stay in Lyon.

Language requirements: English - level corresponding to European framework B2 or TOEFL IBT 80 points / IELTS 6 points.
